

Laurie Atkins

Investment Advisor

Laurie Atkins is a Vice President and Wealth Advisor in the Nashville office of Bernstein Private Wealth Management. She advises families, foundations and business owners on all aspects of wealth planning, including strategic asset allocation, wealth transfer and charitable giving. Her practice is grounded in the principles of authenticity, transparency, and going above and beyond to help her clients to identify and achieve the purpose they identify with their wealth. Laurie joined Bernstein in December 2020 from JPMorgan Private Bank in Nashville, where she served as a vice president and financial advisor. Prior to that, she was a financial advisor and banker with Chase Private Client in Chicago for nine years, before choosing to relocate to Nashville in 2018. Laurie holds a BA in communication studies from the University of Iowa. She is passionate about giving back to the Nashville community, serving on several committees for charity events as well as the board of directors for Nashville Anti-Human Trafficking. Laurie lives in Brentwood and enjoys spending time with her husband and five young children, all of which are aspiring athletes, dancers, and musicians. Laurie and her family are members of Brentwood Baptist Church.
