

WiTT March 30 Chapter Meeting – Speaker Bios

Juliet Daniel, MD, Medical Director at Renova Health

Board Certified Physician and Executive recognized for operational achievements and clinical excellence within inpatient and outpatient digital health environments. Experienced manager of multi-stakeholder corporate and enterprise administrative and clinical groups to achieve improved patient outcomes, clinician satisfaction, and health system operational and financial objectives. Focused on engaging people through trusted clinical relationships and technology to manage their health, so that they can enjoy life with the ones they love.

Mollie McKillop, PhD, MPH, Biomedical Informatician, IBM Watson Health

Mollie is a biomedical informatician at the Center for AI, Research and Evaluation (CARE) at IBM Watson Health. In this role, Mollie provides technical, informatics, and evaluative leadership in the design, development, and execution of research across IBM Watson Health offerings, with a focus on payer, consumer, and government market segments. Her research areas of expertise include consumer and pervasive health, social determinants of health, and phenotyping, Mollie earned her PhD in Biomedical Informatics at Columbia University in the City of New York. Mollie also has an MPH from Columbia University's Mailman School of Public Health and a B.A. from the University of California, Berkeley.

Penny Grogan, VP of Client Relations at Trinisys

Penny Grogan a 25+ year IT business development veteran is the business development executive for Trinisys. She is responsible for strategically and tactically building, developing, and securing Trinisys's client relationships, customer base, and revenue growth. Penny has resided in the Nashville area for over 25 years and is a graduate of Bethel University where she earned her Bachelors of Science in Business Management (Summa Cum Laude).

Penny fulfills one of her passions (promoting the success of women in STEM curriculum) by currently serving as Past President on the Board of Women in Technology of Tennessee (WiTT), where she has been active and held various positions since 2005 including the annual TWISTER committee, and the Athena Awards on the scholarship judging committee. She was a previous board member for the Nashville Technology Council, and sits on Lipscomb University's School of Computing and Informatics Advisory Council as Chairperson, and is VP of Sponsorship for the TN HIMSS chapter.

Since coming to Nashville, she has volunteered her time to multiple organizations including the Association of Contingency Planners where she served as Public Relations Director, the Adventure Science Center, Girl Scouts of Middle Tennessee, the Wilson Central Choir Association, and Wilson County 4-H. She is a member of the Nashville Technology Council where she volunteers for various committees and events. She was awarded WorkIT's 2013 Advocate of the year, was a finalist for Volunteer of the year in 2013 for the Nashville Technology Council, and a nominee representing WiTT for the annual Athena Award in 2016.